
FEBRUARY 3, 1821.

Read twice, and committed to a committee of the whole House on Monday next.

A BILL

Establishing the salaries of the Commissioners and Agents appointed under the treaty of Ghent.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That,
3 from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight
4 hundred and twenty-one, each Commissioner now appointed, 5 or who may be appointed agreeably to the provisions of the 6 treaty of Ghent, shall be entitled to receive at the rate of • 7 dollars per annum, and each agent
8 appointed, or who may be appointed, as aforesaid, shall be en-
9 titled to receive at the rate of dollars
10 per annum; which said sums so allowed to said officers, respec-
11 tively, shall be a full compensation for services and all person-
12 al expenses incurred while in the performance of the duties
13 of their respective offices: Provided, That the compensation
14 by this section allowed shall not be continued longer than two

15 years from the said first day of January, one thousand eight 16 hundred and twenty-one.

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That each Commis-
2 sioner and agent shall not be entitled to receive for services
3 performed in their respective offices, before the said first day
4 of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, any 5 greater sum than the rate of four thousand four hundred and 6 forty-four dollars per annum, which shall be considered a 7 full compensation for services and all personal expenses in-8 curred while in the discharge of their respective duties.